REAL ESTATE TRUST

Trust Real Estate

DISCLAIMER

Certain statements contained herein as they relate to TVC Asset Manager Inc. ("TVC"), TVC Private Real Estate Trust (the "Trust") and related parties and their respective views or predictions about the possible future events or conditions and their business operations and strategy, are "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of that phrase under applicable Canadian securities law.

Any statements that express or involve discussions with respect to predictions, expectations, beliefs, plans, projections, objectives, assumptions or future events or performance (often, but not always, using words or phrases such as "expects", "does not expect", "is expected", "anticipates", "does not anticipate", "plans", "estimates", "believes", "does not believe", or "intends", or stating that certain actions, events or results "may", "could", "would", "might", or "will" be taken, occur or achieved) are not statements of historical fact and may be "forward looking statements". Forward-looking statements are based on the current expectations, estimates and projections of the management of TVC, the Trust and related parties at the time the statements are made. They involve a number of known risks and uncertainties which would cause actual results or events to differ materially from those presently anticipated.

The forward-looking statements contained in this document are given as of the date hereof. Except as otherwise required by law, TVC or the Trust does not intend to and assumes no obligation to update or revise these or other forward-looking statements it may provide, whether as a result of new information, plans or events or otherwise. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements as there can be no assurance that the condition, events, plans and assumptions on which they were based will occur.

Please see the Offering Memorandum for a complete description of the risks associated with an investment in the Trust.

An investment in the Trust Units is highly speculative and involves a number of risk factors inherent in an investment in the Trust Units and in the activities of the Trust, including the following, which subscribers should carefully consider before subscribing for the Trust Units. Although investments made by the Trust will be carefully chosen by the Manager, there is no representation made by the Manager that such investments will have a guaranteed return to Unitholders nor that losses will not be suffered by the Trust from such investments. This Offering is not suitable for investors who cannot afford to assume significant risks in connection with their investments.

Purchasers Rights Securities legislation in certain of the provinces and territories of Canada provides purchasers with a statutory right of action for damages or rescission in cases where an offering memorandum or any amendment thereto contains an untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact that is required to be stated or is necessary to make any statement contained therein not misleading in light of the circumstances in which it was made (a "misrepresentation"). These rights, or notice with respect thereto, must be exercised or delivered, as the case may be, by purchasers within the time limits prescribed and are subject to the defenses and limitations contained under the applicable securities legislation. The following summary is subject to the express provisions of applicable securities legislation applicable and the regulations, rules and policy statements thereunder. Purchasers should refer to the securities legislation applicable in their province or territory along with the regulations, rules and policy statements thereunder for the complete text of these provisions or should consult with their legal advisor. The statutory rights of action described below are in addition to and without derogation from any other right or remedy that purchasers may have at law.

If you are subject to the laws of Ontario, Saskatchewan, Nova Scotia or New Brunswick, those laws provide, in part, that if there is a misrepresentation in an offering memorandum, which was a misrepresentation at the time that you subscribed for the securities, then you will be deemed to have relied upon the misrepresentation and will, as provided below, have a right of action against the issuer of the securities (and, in certain instances, other persons) in respect of the securities purchased by you for damages, or alternatively, while still the owner of any of the securities purchased, for rescission, in which case, if you elect to exercise the right of rescission, you will have no right of action for damages against the issuer of the securities, provided that: (1) no person or company will be liable if it proves that you purchased the securities with knowledge of the misrepresentation; (2) in the case of an action for damages, the defendant will not be liable for all or any portion of the damages that it proves do not represent the depreciation in value of the securities as a result of the misrepresentation; and (3) in no case will the amount recoverable in any action exceed the price at which the securities were purchased by you. In Ontario, Saskatchewan or New Brunswick, in the case of an action for rescission, no action may be commenced more than 180 days after the date of the transaction that gave rise to the cause of action. In the case of any action other than an action for rescission, (A) in Ontario, no action may be commenced later than the earlier of (i) 180 days after you first had knowledge of the facts giving rise to the cause of action, or (ii) three years after the date of the transaction that gave rise to the cause of action, and (B) in Saskatchewan or New Brunswick, no action may be commenced later than the earlier of (i) one year after you first had knowledge of the facts giving rise to the cause of action; or (ii) six years after the date of the transaction that gave rise to the cause of action. In Nova Scotia, no action (for rescission or otherwise) may be commenced later than 120 days after the date on which payment was made for the securities.

If you are subject to the laws of any other province or territory, reference should be made to the full text of the applicable provisions of the securities legislation in such provinces or territories or consultation should be undertaken with professional advisors.

RISK DISCLOSURE

Investment in TVC Trust involves a high degree of risk and is suitable only for those investors who can withstand the loss of their entire investment

The investor requires the financial ability and willingness to accept the high risks and lack of liquidity inherent in an investment in the Trust.

No assurance, representation or warranty can be given that the Trust's investment objectives will be achieved or that investors will receive a guarantee of return of their capital.

"Strong Management" is qualified due to the breadth of the education, work experience, and designations held by Craig Burrows (BA, ICD.D), Lorne Morozoff (CA, CPA), and John Campbell (B.Comm, CA, CPA, MBA, CFA), and two trustees holding their ICD.D designations. "Strong Governance" is qualified due to the Issuer having two out of its five trustees sitting as independents, and that the independent trustees must unanimously approve all conflict-of-interest matters. "Strong Results" is intended to be an overarching goal of the Issuer and is in no way a guarantee of success or performance.

Conflict of Interest

TVC Trust is considered a "related issuer" to Tri View Capital Ltd., which operates as a registered Exempt Market Dealer and offers units of TVC Trust for purchase through its network or registered dealing representatives. TriView Capital Ltd. is registered in BC, AB, SK, MB< ON, QC and NS.

An issuer distributing securities is a "related issuer" of a registered firm if the issuer and the registered firm are owned, directed, or controlled by the same third persons.

For full details on TVC Trust and a complete description of the risks associated with an investment in the Trust, please contact a TriView Capital registered Dealing Representative or Investment Advisor who can discuss this offering with you and provide you with the current TVC Trust Offering Memorandum dated May 4, 2021.

Investment Risks (such as and not limited to):

Ability of management to identify and value investments correctly, ability to continue to raise funds to pursue investment opportunities.

Limited ability to redeem investment, risks of real estate investing including changing economic conditions, government legislation, taxation, interest rates, competition, rent collection, occupancy etc., and COVID 19.
